Discussion Questions For “What’s the Message?” Lessons

Lesson 22

Questions

Every life is filled with challenges. Some of them may seem to be a “mission impossible” at the time. Think about some such moments you have experienced. What was it that pulled you through the darkness of the moment? Was it your own strength and skill, or did you depend on someone else? Are the difficulties of life easier to handle if you have the help of someone you can really count on? Can you count on your Heavenly Father?

Do you consider taking a small part of your life and using it in a project at your church an imposition on your time, and beg off with some spur-of-the-moment excuses? Do you think it is fair that someone should ask you to give of yourself for a church project? Why, or why not?
