Discussion Questions For “What’s the Message?” Lessons

Lesson 29

Questions

Did the Israelites suffer from a short attention span syndrome? Moses was only gone from their sight 40 days. Why would they forget everything he had said to them and they had agreed to, so soon?

Is the bottom line issue here one of obedience, or is it more accurately, the consequences of disobedience? Or is it both?

Why is the matter of obedience repeated so often throughout Genesis and again in Exodus? What does that say about the descendants of Abraham? What does that say about us?

Is this such a difficult lesson to learn that we have to be reminded about it often, even daily?

What consequences are certain if we choose to disobey God?
